Timeliness, Accuracy, Dependability and Responsiveness.

In 2004 Rosenberg Deposition Services, LLC (RDS) was formed to provide outstanding Court Reporting and Legal Videography Services to the Chicagoland legal community under the recognized name of Fred R. Rosenberg. Unique to RDS's reporting arm, and in response to the growing document management needs of our clients, RDS has incorporated Document Management and Videoconferencing Services capabilities to enhance the breadth of our services.

We bring these services, our professionalism and experience to our clients to provide a level of service that meets and exceeds your expectations.

Deposition Services

All of the advances in computer and information technology that have been experienced in the recent past have had a profound impact on the legal industry. This progress in technology requires that your finger stay on the pulse of these fast moving advances. Our clients expect this and RDS has developed the unique ability to deliver. Our operations and management personnel are not only able to deliver; in several instances we were at the vanguard of the awesome changes that this industry experienced.

Document Solutions

Our Document Solutions staff will consult with you in order for you to make and implement intelligent litigation support decisions. We provide the knowledge, experience and procedures to organize, digitize, manage, and disseminate documents. Our technical staff has experience with most widely used litigation support database products used in the industry. Pickup and delivery in the Chicago downtown area can be provided by our professional account representatives.

Video Conferencing Services

Our Video Conferencing location provides state of the art technology with fast and efficient communication tools. After a few minutes you will forget that your deponent is halfway across the country or even the world. RDS will make every effort to ensure that your time in our Video Conferencing facility makes excellent use of your valuable time.
